FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Toronto, Ontario / Marseille, France - Thursday, November 22nd, 2018 - Foraco International SA (the "Company" or "Foraco") has issued the following statement:

Terrorist attack on FORACO Camp, Toumour Village, Diffa region, Niger.

Last night at 2 am local time, a group of terrorists attacked the small building where a FORACO team was sleeping and killed 7 of them, plus one civil servant. 5 others FORACO employees were wounded and 2 are in serious condition. The building had been chosen in agreement with the commander of the military escort which was insuring FORACO personnel security.

FORACO is currently drilling a pair of deep water wells for the Niger Ministry of Water for a refugees camp to improve their quality of life in this very remote region.

The Company is actively cooperating with the authorities to evacuate the injured personnel to the nearest suitable hospital and is setting up support for the families of the victims.

All our thoughts are going to those who have been affected by this senseless tragedy.
